

THIS BUS IS FOR EVERYONE USE YOUR PASS OR PAY WITH CASH

West Oxfordshire Community Transport Limited (WOCT)

is a charitable Community Benefit Society registered under the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act 2014 by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) registration No. 7458.

A Community Benefit Society is an organisation that conducts business for the benefit of the community. Any profits are not distributed among members or external shareholders, but returned to the organisation for further investment in its objectives. Anyone can become a member and help keep local bus services running on people power.

West Oxfordshire Community Transport Limited aims to work with our community to deliver sustainable public transport services through a not-for-profit organisation.

We believe that local bus services have an important role in maintaining an active and engaged community by providing the necessary links for all residents.
